THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT YOUR STATEMENT.

Refer to your agreement for more details, including a glossary of defined terms.

WHAT IS A CREDIT LIMIT?

Your credit limit is the maximum amount you (together with your authorized users) can charge to your account. Your current credit limit appears on each monthly statement. The cash advance limit is part of your total credit limit – it's not additional credit over and above the credit limit for your account.

WHAT DOES AVAILABLE CREDIT MEAN?

Your available credit is the amount of credit that you are able to use for purchases, including any purchases made under a special payment plan, cash advances and balance transfers. It's usually your total credit limit minus the present balance of your account, minus the amount of any pending transactions that had not yet posted to your account by the date your statement was prepared.

WHAT IS A MINIMUM PAYMENT?

Your minimum payment is the lowest amount of money that you're required to pay each month to keep your account from going past due. This includes any amount due under a special payment plan during that billing period and any amounts on your account that are already past due. The way we calculate your minimum payment is set out in the disclosure statement you received when you opened your account.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN MY NEW TOTAL BALANCE AND NEW REGULAR BALANCE?

- (a) New total balance. The total amount you owe on your account as of the date your statement was prepared. It does not include the amount of any pending transactions that had not posted to your account by the date your statement was prepared.
- (b) New regular balance. The amount you must pay by the payment due date to avoid interest charges on new purchases. This is equal to the new total balance minus the portion of any special payment plan (SPP) balances and special balance transfer (BT) plan balances that are not yet due. If you do not have a special payment plan or a special balance transfer plan, your new regular balance will be equal to your new total balance. You cannot avoid interest charges on cash advances, balance transfers, or associated fees and interest.

WHAT ARE MY PROMOTIONAL PLAN BALANCES?

Promotional plans include special payment plans and special balance transfer plans.

- (a) Promotional plan balance. This is the total balance remaining on your promotional plan(s), including any unpaid past and current payments.

- (b) Promotional plan amount due. This amount includes any promotional plan payments due in the current billing period and any unpaid payments from previous periods. It is included in your minimum payment.

HOW ARE FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS HANDLED?

We will bill you in Canadian dollars when you use your card to make a transaction in a foreign currency, as disclosed in your agreement. The Canadian dollar amount will be shown in the transaction total on your statement. When the converted transaction posts to your account, we will add a foreign currency conversion charge equal to 2.5% of the converted transaction amount. Item level details (if applicable) are shown in the original currency. If a foreign currency transaction is refunded to your account, the exchange rate for the refund may not be the same as the rate used when the original purchase was processed. As a result, the amount of the purchase and the refund may differ. If the amount of the refund is less than the amount of the purchase, you will be responsible for the difference.

HOW DO I DISPUTE A STATEMENT ERROR?

You are responsible for all transactions posted to your account. Please notify us in case of billing errors or questions about your monthly statement. If you think your statement has an error, or if you need more information about a transaction on your monthly statement, call us as soon as possible at 1-866-640-7858, or you can write to us at Hudson's Bay Credit Services, P.O. Box 903, Stn. Agincourt, Scarborough, ON M1S 5M4. Please include in the letter your name and account number, the dollar amount of the suspected error and explain why you believe this is an error. If you need more information about a transaction, describe the item you are unsure about.

HOW DO I SUBMIT A COMPLAINT?

If you have a customer service complaint or any other concern, you can call us at 1-866-640-7858 or write to us at Hudson's Bay Credit Services, P.O. Box 903, Stn. Agincourt, Scarborough, ON M1S 5M4.
